PRAYER FOR THIS COUNTRY

The West African country Guinea is run by a military junta that overthrew Conde, 84, in a coup last year. Some opponents of the junta say it is going after Conde's old allies to prevent them from running in the next elections. The junta has proposed to hold elections after a 24-month transition period, but has not confirmed when that would start. Guinea's justice minister ordered legal proceedings against former President Alpha Conde and more than 180 officials from his deposed regime for alleged corruption and embezzlement of public funds. Conde is officially in Turkey for medical treatment, but his exact whereabouts are unknown. The former prime minister and former president of the national assembly, have already been detained by the junta for months on similar accusations. Pray for the leaders to repent of their sins and fear God (The Bible, Proverbs 8:13).

MORE ABOUT THIS COUNTRY

Guinea, relatively a peaceful country, is jolted by the coups. Incumbent Mamady Doumbouya is the president since 1 October 2021. Incumbent Bernard Gomou is the prime minister since 17 July 2022. Experiments with socialism and a two-year rule by a junta have taken their toll on prospects for development. The 2010 election ushered in a decade of civilian rule but led to violent ethnic clashes as well. In addition, hundreds of thousands of refugees from Liberia and Sierra Leone have strained Guinea's struggling economy. The instability has generated suspicion and ethnic tension – as well as accusations between neighbors of attempts at destabilization and border attacks. Muslim converts to Christianity fear family reactions and harassment by the extremists.
